Welcome to the Swan

Oh how we have missed you. As you can see, we have been really busy during lockdown fully refurbishing the entire pub, sadly we didn't quite get all the little details finished, but bear with us and we will.

We are trying to keep things as normal and enjoyable for you but there are a few new rules we need to follow. It is table service only inside, please resist the temptation to visit the bar, let us do all the work for you. There is hand sanitiser in the little blue bottles on all the tables, and at all entry and exit points for your use.

If you are outside drinking or dining please use our new alfresco bar at the end of the pub by the car park entrance to order your food and drink.

The toilets are one person at a time, they have a lock inside the first door, please do use it so that someone else can't enter. If there is anything you need to know just ask.
